

the
ish
sh-
ex
ice
re

es-
th
to an he

ill
ife
az-
m ve
ng

he
nd
es
n-le

ve
a d-
to
ng
sie
of

te
rted

of
s e

g-
g
g

y
n
n
n
h

Sales no. C252-1

● A smiling welcome to Langrish School for storyteller and musician Michael O'Leary, as he arrives for an afternoon with the pupils

Are you sitting comfortably . . . ?

Storyteller Michael O'Leary enthralled Langrish Primary School children with tales, music and props on a recent visit.

The former junior school teacher from Southampton told stories and played a pipe for organised by the pub's Thai owners, Mudita Karnasuta and her family.

This year it drew the biggest reception-class children and held a story-telling workshop for the infants.

The visit was arranged as part of the pupil's English curriculum studies.

Hood presented the second, to protect the welfare and education of child carers.

Both resolutions were carried and 1953 is welcome to attend.

People planning to go are being asked to telephone 01420 493879 or 01420 473200 before June 19 so