
Exmouth Gallery

11.00am – 3.00pm

Artist demonstration: Michael Buckland

Michael will demonstrate oil painting.

Manor Gardens

10.00am – 12 Noon

African drumming workshop with Experience Africa

Widely acclaimed performer and teacher, Denis Kigongo returns to Exmouth for another great masterclass in drumming.

12.30pm

Martin John Nicholls and the Pretty Good Band

He may be local, but this singer-songwriter has a global message and a wide appeal. Original, entertaining music with a witty twist.

2.00pm

Teddy Bears' Picnic!

Come and join in the family fun in the Manor Gardens this afternoon. Dress up your teddy and join in the fantastic teddy bear fancy-dress competition! Categories for best-dress ted are: Bears in the news (eg Tony Bear) Bears from the past Bearladeras

Manor Gardens

from 2.00pm

Throughout the afternoon there will be fun and family entertainment a'plenty! Featuring FireStone, a widely acclaimed group who are passionate for dance in any style they discover, including Appalachian Clogging, Irish Figure, American Square and English Ceilidh. FireStone is accompanied by a talented band of musicians.

Mr Salsa's dance class also returns to the festival for the second year. Come along and get a taste for Salsa and experience the fun of la rueda!

You'll hear Frances Jones before you see her. And when you do see her you'll be amazed as she joins us on stage with her Alpine Horn!

Bob & Bob Jobbins, Chucklefoot and Stompie and Wally the Clown will be mingling amongst you and raising a laugh. Michael O'Leary is our resident storyteller for the afternoon, gather 'round and listen to a tale or two.

Manor Gardens

4.30pm

Judging the bears

Make your way to the stage and enter your smartly dressed ted into the competition. Be prepared to tell everyone all about your choice of fancy dress and fingers crossed you might just win a prize. Storytime with Michael O'Leary will finish off the afternoon at 5pm.

7.30pm

Exmouth Town Band

Rounding off the festival in the Manor Gardens.

GW RSA club, Victoria Rd

7.00pm – 10.00pm

The Exmouth Liberation

Presented by Devon Music Service and Exmouth Youth service. A showcase by youth bands who rehearse at the Exmouth Youth Service drop-in centre. Featuring: Skipping the Line, Platinum Daughter and The Redempt plus other acts to be confirmed.

Admission £2.

Sponsored by Devon Music Service.